Telegrams.

HAVAS

Paris, 30th.—The influenza epidemic has totally disappeared in Europe. For some days past only a few cases have taken place in Italy and Spain, without any fatal termination.

Cadiz, 30th.—The Count de Paris embarked yesterday from this port for Los Antillas.

Berlin, 30th.—The Socialist papers rejoice greatly over the defeat of the Government in the Reichstag, on the throwing out of the project of law against Socialism. They expect to have even a greater majority in the coming elections.

GALVESTON.

London, 29th—The Portuguese question has taken the same aspect as the American question. It was hoped that the patriotic effervescence would be now exhausted, but in place of this it is nearer boiling point than ever, so much so that the English fear that it is kept up by foreign gold. The British Commerce, with Portugal ought to be taken into consideration. Last year it amounted to 15,000,000 dollars. Should it be lost, or any considerable reduction take place it means the ruin of many English firms. On the other hand the Portuguese have also to look out. The imports from Portugal to England last year amounted to 20,000,000 dollars in wine and fruits showed the foreign markets increase duties in these articles it would mean complete ruin for Portugal, Lord Salisbury would not have hesitated in attacking the question in this manner, which had been approved in general by his countrymen and it would have been more efficacious and less expensive than to have sent the fleet to Tajo. All Europe is egoistical and have turned their eyes toward the west of Great Britain.

Valparaiso, 30—The gun boat Abtas left yesterday for the Mediterranean on a voyage of instruction for the midshipmen.

The Government has instructed Engineer Jose M. Figueroa to take over the inspection of the Clark Transandine Railway which company has to pay him $27,000 per year.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM.

(From our own Correspondent)
Corrientes, 30th

Awful catastrophe. The boiler of the steamer Berta burst to-day with a terrific explosion. Three people were instantly killed, and three more so severely injured that they will probably die. The steamer sank at once. The sad accident has caused much excitement.

REVOLUTION IN MENDOZA

Mendoza, 30th At half past two this morning, the Governor's house was attacked by an armed group, who fired with their Remingtons. There were no guards or soldiers about the place, and the Governor made no resistance.

The greatest indignation and alarm prevail amongst the inhabitants.

In the last two days Orteguistas and Guinazuistas have been going about armed, and the slightest pretext would have brought about a sanguinary encounter of the two factions. Rumours had even spread that a band of paid men were looking out for Col. Ortega to kill him. The Governor rarely shewed himself in public, and when he did he was always accompanied by a body of guards. Col. Ortega was not unmindful of his person.

All the police forces here for the last two days have been under arms and the streets are patrolled at night. An edict has been issued prohibiting all public gatherings with 8 hoursout notice.

The present state of affairs is causing great injury to commercial interests, and people do not know what to think.

Rosario, 30—The suicide of the Custom House liquidator, Mr. Maximo Lara, yesterday, was due, it appears, to some family quarrel. He leaves four children. His funeral took place this evening.

Dr. Cafferata, who has resigned his seat in the Cabinet, is expected to reside in this city.

Another fall in the flour market is announced from Santa Fe.

Weather very fresh after the recent rain.

Cordoba, 30—Great preparations for the reception of Minister Bocayuva.

It hailed and rained yesterday.

REVOLUTION IN MENDOZA.

The news from Mendoza yesterday reveals a very revolutionary state of affairs, and it looks very much as if a strong faction is determined to overthrow the Governor, not with the peaceful energy with which Mr. Bocayuva and his friends established a new order of things in Rio, but at the point of the bayonet. Last year, while President Juarez was seeking in Cordoba that quiet and repose which a Government House can never afford, a similar movement sprang up, and the Governor of Mendoza, Mr. Benegas, was turned out of office, though afterwards reinstated by the energetic attitude of Vice-President Pellegrini.

The telegrams we publish in another column shew that yesterday morning an armed group attacked the Governor's residence and fired several remington bullets into the place. It is added that the Governor made no resistance, from which it may be inferred that he has been taken prisoner.

The storm has been brewing some time in Mendoza, and the first symptoms of coming disorders were manifested even before the President left for Cordoba or Minister Quintino Bocayuva arrived. The Minister, Calle, had been summarily dismissed by Governor Guiñazu, and the animosity ensuing must have fanned into a flame the smouldering embers of the differences between the local factions. The movement, which is of a retaliatory character, now culminates in an armed attack on the Governor. At the same time it is to be inferred that the serious state of affairs and the approaching culmination were known on Wednesday evening to the Vice President, for on the same day one of the most popular commanders in the Army, General F. Bosch, was sent from here in special train with instructions to bring about an amicable arrangement. The denouement will be known to-day.

It is indeed to be deplored that the germs of revolution, circumscribed and confined no doubt to a distant province, should manifest themselves at a moment when the Nation should try to capture the esteem of a distinguished visitor like Mr. Bocayuva. In his address on Wednesday evening to this Brazilian plenipotentiary, Dr. Luis V. Varela exclaimed: "There is no longer any past!" The eloquent judge's exclamation is belied by yesterday's telegrams. The past is resuscitating to supply what the present perhaps cannot afford, and Minister Bocayuva, ere he returns to his native shores, will have perchance an occasion to witness on a small scale what the revolutionary spirit, which overthrew a monarch in Brazil, can do in our republican midst, though within the narrow limits of a distant province.

BANCO DE ITALIA Y RIO DE LA PLATA.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of this bank was held yesterday in the new board room upstairs of the bank. Mr. A. Devoto, president of the bank, in the chair. The vice president, Mr. Demarchi, and the other directors were also present, but the attendance of shareholders was not numerous, the hour being inconvenient for many who have to attend the Bolsa in the afternoon. Señor Badano read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved, and then read the report and balance sheet, which shows the sound and progressive march of the bank. The report was then put to the meeting and carried, after which the election of four directors was proceeded with, resulting in the re-election of same as last year. A special vote of thanks to Mr. Stoppani, the talented manager, and his staff was proposed and carried unanimously. Sr. Devoto, on behalf of the manager and the employees, in graceful terms returned thanks. He dwelt on the very valuable interests which the board directs, and the great care taken in everything concerning the management and administration of the bank affairs. The meeting then rose.

It will be seen from the balance sheet which we give at foot that the business of the bank within the last few years has undergone great development. The dividend, 10 per cent gold, for the 1st year is a very handsome return to the shareholders as with the interim dividend paid last July, the dividend paid for the year amounts to 20 per cent gold. Moreover, all bad and undoubtful debts have been written off and 240,000 gold set aside to the reserve, which with the 100,000 gold set to the reserve last July makes 340,000 gold reserve for the year. This shows the great prudence of the board which merits the very highest praise. The following is the Balance sheet:—

BRAZIL PAST AND FUTURE.

(From the "Contemporary Review.")

After a brief existence of 67 years the last monarchy on the American Continent has disappeared. It was founded in 1822, when the Crown Prince of Braganza was made Emperor under the title of Pedro I. whose reign came to an end in 1831, when he abdicated and retired to Oporto. His son Pedro II. ascended the throne in 1840, at the age of 15, and wanted therefore but one year to celebrate his jubilee. As a constitutional sovereign he left little to be desired, taking no part in politics and confining his efforts to the promotion of arts and sciences and the abolition of slavery. But for the Paraguayan War his reign would have been an unbroken career of progress. Nevertheless, the growth of the republican movement has been no secret. It began in Rio Grande in 1835, when Garibaldi headed the Farapos, who were only suppressed after 10 years of civil war. In our own time many prominent Brazilians declared openly their intention to proclaim a republic on Don Pedro's death, and the Emperor himself knew well that his grandson, the Prince of Para, had no chance of the throne. The revolution, however, was probably hastened by the planters, in revenge for the law of May 1888, abolishing slavery.

2. THE SLAVERY QUESTION.

By virtue of the Treaty of Utrecht a monopoly of the slave trade was conceded to England in 1713, and during the 18th century English merchants conveyed immense numbers of negroes from Africa to Pernambuco, Bahia, Santos and Buenos Ayres. In this manner the industries of Brazil became dependent on negro labour, and when Pedro II ascended the throne in 1840, the number of slaves was understood to reach two millions, or one-fourth of the population. Great Britain had, meantime, not only liberated the slaves in her own West India islands, but undertaken an active crusade to prevent or abolish slavery elsewhere, and in 1826 a treaty had been signed at Rio Janeyro prohibiting any further importation of slaves from Africa. It was not, however, until 1872 that a law was passed for the gradual abolition of slavery, whereby it was decreed that all children of slaves should thenceforward be born free, that certain revenues be devoted to the annual redemption of a number of slaves, and that slavery should utterly cease in the year 1900. This measure was brought in by Viscount Paranhos do Rio Branco, the prime minister, who was a natural son of Pedro I., and possessed the cordial sympathy and support of his half brother the emperor. The religious orders led the way by manumitting their slaves, and several private persons generously imitated the exampie. The planters, on the contrary, opposed the measure as far as possible, anticipating that the blacks, once emancipated, would do no more work, but let the coffee and sugar plantations fall to ruin. Nor was the Government heedless of the danger of a labor crisis. In 1880, a special embassy was sent to Pekin, when it was arranged with Prince Kung to introduce two hundred thousand Chinese into Brazil, but the treaty afterwards fell to the ground. Redoubled efforts were then made, by sending "drummers" all over Europe with offers of free passages, food for twelve months, and free grants of land, which had the effect of attracting more than 100,000 Germans and Italians, no fewer than 131,000 emigrants of all nationalities landing last year at Rio and Santos. The planters, too, imported the newest and best agricultural machinery from the United States and England, for the saving of labour. Such was the posture of affairs in May, 1888, when the Princess Regent signed the law emancipating at least 1,300,000 slaves In 1876 it had been found that 40,000 planters possessed 1,511,000, of all ages and sexes. My space will not permit me to discuss their treatment. I have seen at Rio Grande a female slave who was twice given her liberty and who refused to leave her mistress. The lash, meantime, was common on the plantations, and many slaves committed suicide and even killed their children, to avoid a life of hopeless toil and ill-treatment.

MINISTER BOCAYUVA IN THE ONRUBIA.

Nothing could equal the adornments of the theatre, the enthusiasm of the audience, the eloquence of the speeches, nor the irreproachable conduct of the vast and many-voiced multitude that filled the Onrubia on Wednesday night. Everything was as perfect and plausible as the principles which Mr. Bocayuva impersonates, and which seem so dear to the Argentine heart. The matchless voice of Madame Patti, the tragic splendor of Mdme Sarah Bernhardt's acting, have often attracted crowds to our theatres, but on Wednesday night the Onrubia was too small to hold the vast multitude gathered to welcome a minister and applaud the cause he represents.

On the stage were three tables round which were seated the members of the Committee and others who organized the manifestation. Flowers were strewn about in tasteful profusion, and the Brazilian and Argentine colors, artistically blended, occupied the back-part of the stage. The theatre was terribly overcrowded, as the multitude had literally poured into the pit, the boxes, the galleries. The very lobby and doorways were crowded.

Minister Quintino Bocayuva arrived at a quarter to ten. He was accompanied by the members of his party, whose names we gave in our last issue. On his arrival the orchestra began to play the Brazilian and Argentine Hymns, the inspiriting strains of which worked up the standing multitude to an extraordinary degree of enthusiasm. On the conclusion of the hymns, a young lawyer read out the telegrams which had been received from all parts of the country welcoming the Brazilian Minister of Foreign Affairs. Then Dr. L. V. Varela, the judge, the poet and the friend, rose and delivered a remarkable speech. With open arms, he said, the people and the Government welcomed Minister Bocayuva, the incarnation of a triumphant idea and the herald of a perpetual peace in South America. No better choice could have been made by the Brazilian people. There was no longer any past. He hailed the statesman and the journalist, the soldier in the cause of America. The slave had been freed without causing the blood of the white man to be spilled, and peace had been established without foreign arbitration. Bocayuva had fought for the triple cause and was now crowned with the triple wreath of victory. History had never witnessed grander events condensed into so short a time. Two countries had met and embraced. He then proceeded to sketch the political evolution of Brazil, calling in the examples of history in other countries, and he showed that the Brazilian revolution was the grandest of any mankind has witnessed. Europe had been informed by the electric fluid of the triumph of democracy, and before her monarchs had had time to recover from their surprise, they saw the fallen emperor approach without his crown. The last monarchy of America had crumbled away, and the rumbling sound of the fall had shaken the older thrones in Europe. The epoch was one of evolution rather than revolution. The sovereign people were re-vindicating their rights.

Mr. Varela continued some time in this inspiriting strain, which thrilled the audience and opened their eyes to the great historical facts from which he drew the great principles of the liberty of the people. Astronomers had failed of late to discover the wonted spots on the sun. Had the God of the Incas wished to associate with the people in their rejoicing at the triumph of American freedom. The Sun of America was now immaculate; her former spots of slavery and monarchy had disappeared. Yet when years shall have elapsed and the voice of justice prevail over time, the august figure of him who yesterday was Dom Pedro II, Emperor, to-day Don Pedro de Alcantara, will appear with an aureole of glory to Americans, for although he fell as the impersonation of an idea, he will always be remembered as the first citizen of Brazil. Like the liberal England of our days, a crown had been placed amid republican wreaths. The will of fate was inexorable.

"Gentlemen," he exclaimed, "let us rise and salute the glorious 15th of November 1889, a classic date in the book of human events." He then apostrophised America, the home of the free. "Audite et atendite, populi de longe!" Then turning to the minister, he welcomed him again as the herald of peace. "Tell them," he said, "when you return to your country, that you found a compact family who received you with open arms, and that the brotherhood of Brazilians and Argentines is now sealed by the double ties of republicanism and peace. This alliance between people and people shall be more enduring than the medal we have struck off to commemorate the event!"

Music followed, and a short interval of mutual congratulations was indulged in. Finally Mr. Bocayuva, under the influence of profound emotion rose, amid deafening cheers, to reply. He asked to be excused for not expressing his feelings and emotions in the sweet language of the Argentines. He had been moved by the reception which the Argentine people had given him. He regretted that in the evolution which had taken place in his country the honored name of the emperor should have been sacrificed. But the sacrifice could not have been avoided. It was the necessary result of those ideas which he had always upheld.

He was an enthusiastic admirer of the progress of the Argentine people. The virility and advance of the Argentine Republic were wonderful, and in the study of that virility and advance Brazil had found the model for the evolution which had recently culminated (Tremendous applause).

He had devoted all his life to the defence of the Republican idea. He had been looked upon as a dreamer; justice was done him to-day (applause).

Brazil could now pursue the tenor of her way in peace. Her evolution had been natural and peaceful, and the first care of the Republic had been to surround the emperor with every respect and guarantee. But the duties of the citizen could not be interfered with by courtesy. The overthrow of monarchy was necessary, and likewise necessary the founding of the Republic.

He looked upon the manifestation as one to Brazil, for he was the bearer not only of the credentials of a government but of those of a brotherly people (applause). If we should be called upon to spill our blood in common, we would unfurl our standards solely for the cause of liberty and civilization (frantic applause).

The honor of signing the Misiones Treaty he considered to be the highest honor that had ever been bestowed on him. He had signed it not only with his pen but with his heart.

In conclusion he saw that the cause which had triumphed in Brazil was worthy of the homage the Argentine people so generously expressed on the occasion. These enthusiastic sentiments would be more enduring than the bronze of the medal, for the sacred principles of liberty were more enduring than metal (applause).

The audience then dispersed.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

GREAT FIRE.

AN ENTIRE SQUARE DESTROYED.

(From the River Plate Times)

The largest fire we ever remember to have witnessed took place on Monday night; an entire square being destroyed by the devouring element, the fierceness of which may be judged from the fact that the flames which burst out at 3 o'clock in the morning of yesterday were still blazing away more furiously than ever late last evening. It appears that at about 2 a.m. yesterday (Tuesday) morning, the policemen on guard at the corner of Calles Cerro Largo and Andes noticed the smoke issuing from the immense lumber barraca belonging to Sr. Jose Montero Wentuises in Calle Cerro Largo Nos. 96, 96a, 96b, 96c. This barraca, which was well stocked with piles upon piles of lumber and which occupies almost an entire square, being supplemented with a steam saw mill and adjoined by two coachhouses, was exactly the spot for a fire to delight in.

The Chief of Police, Col. Tajes, and the Fire Brigade with their chief, Sr. Bagnales, were soon on the spot, but the fire burst most voraciously, and the inflammable nature of building and stock soon rendered it impossible for the fire brigade to do much good, though aided by an abundant supply of water and assisted by the men of the "Capitania de Puerto" and "Resguardo" with their engines.

The fire is said to have commenced amongst some hay deposited in a yard belonging to the saw-mill, in Calle Orillas del Plata, between Andes and Convencion. A strong wind was blowing and the flames spread with terrible rapidity, and rose to such a height that they could be seen from every point of the city, and soon drew an immense crowd to the scene of action. The fire soon found its way into the Barraca of Sr. Montero Wentuises, and getting possession of the piles of lumber quickly convinced the firemen that it would be useless for them to hope to get it under; and they therefore began to turn their attention to saving the property in the houses alongside. From the yard of Sr. Montero the fire then spread to the produce barraca of Messrs. Florencio Elzaurdia and José Suarez. More than 30,000 arrobas of fine wool and a large quantity of cow hides and sheepskins were stowed here. But the fierce march of the fire would not be stayed, and the destructive element soon made havoc of all this valuable property. From the barraca of Elzaurdia the flames threatened to burst into the coach-house of Messrs. Juan Arbonet y hijo, in the upper story of which the owners lived with their family. The thickness and height of the walls luckily preserved this building from any very serious damage. The deposit of the Northern Railway, situated in Calles Convencion and Orillas del Plata, was also invaded by the fire, which destroy d various waggons and some carts belonging to Sr Tomas, the owner of a coach-house in Calle Cerrito, who had deposited some vehicles there for want of space in his own house.

Through the torrent of sparks, which the wind carried in all directions, some bags of wool were set on fire in the barraca of Messrs Balparda and Co, situated in front of that of Elzaurdia, but with the aid of some 30 volunteers this branch of the fire was soon extinguished, many fine horses and bulls which were lodged in the barraca of Messrs Balparda being at once removed for fear of further accident.

In the barraca of Montero a horse and dog perished victims of the flames, it being impossible to save them.

The firemen worked valorously, toiling in the heat and the thick of the smoke for ten to twelve hours unceasingly. One of the chiefs, Señor Tomas Gutierrez, had his left leg broken while rescuing the money safe from the destructive element.

In the baracca of Elzaurdia and Suarez there were thirty-five thousand arrobas of wool, of which thirty thousand belonged to Señor Suarez and five thousand to Señor Elzaurdia.

Señor Suarez had his property insured in the North British and Mercantile and La Plata Insurance Companies for ninety thousand dollars, and Señor Elzuardia was insured in the last mentioned Company for twelve thousand dollars.

The barraca of Señor Montero Wentuises was not insured; the owners estimate their loss s at two hundred thousand dollars. The coachhouse of Arhonet & hijo was not insured either. Señor Suarez has lost ten thousand hides and skins, besides the wool already mentioned.

In the saw-mills there were nearly 100,000 feet of lumber, all of which has been destroyed as well as 100,000 Sandubay posts.

The entire losses are valued at 450,000 dollars.

Much of the office furniture of the barraca was saved by being thrown through the windows into the street.

The heat and fierceness of the fire was aided by a large deposit of coal, in the centre of the saw mill yard, which also took fire.

THE RENEWED DRAIN OF GOLD TO B. AYRES

It is remarked in our confemporary the Financier that it would seem that the Argentine Republic is again about to make its mark upon the London Market. A sum of £124,000 [irrespective of £200,000 for Lisbon] was withdrawn on Wednesday from the Bank of England for Buenos Ayres, and it is understood that this is the commencement of a renewed drain. According to views held in good quarters, two or three millions sterling in gold are likely to leave Europe for Buenos Ayres in the course of the next few weeks or months. The exchange there having advanced to 49d.—a rate materially different from the 47½d. which was current a short time ago—it pays exporters of Argentine produce to get gold over instead of drawing bills on Europe. In view of the large exports of Argentine produce which are about to take place, and which will be continued throughout January, February, and March, and of the influence which the premium on gold must have in reducing imports, it is evident that the balance of trade will be in favour of the Republic and against Europe, and that, to redress this balance, gold must go. In so far as gold exports from England may tend to raise the value of money here, a prejudicial effect will be produced primarily upon the prices of certain high class Investment Stocks, such as those of the British, Indian, and Colonial Governments, which have latterly been raised in value through the effects of a belief that money was likely to be cheaper. Reassuring indications, however, are not wanting. Thus, it is believed that the bulk of the gold required will be taken from France and other Continental points. This is reasonable, for, as the gold goes in payment for wool, meat, and grain, it is natural that the Continent, which takes heavy quantities of these commodities and, in particular, more than half of the total Argentine wool production, should be called upon to pay for them. Furthermore, it has to be remembered that France, excellently provided as she is with gold, can well spare the amount required. A beneficial effect will be produced upon Argentine Securities of all descriptions, and, amongst others, upon the "Cedula" Bonds, which have latterly been severely depreciated. In view of the increased Argentine exports and of the remittances of gold from Europe which are now commencing, a considerable decline in the premium on gold is probable. The whole movement may be characterised as an essentially natural and healthy one, for gold goes, not on account of any credit operation, but simply in payment for articles of Argentine produce which Europe needs.

Thus far the Financier. We may supplement our contemporary's remarks by dwelling upon the beneficial influence which the influx of gold into the Republic must have upon Argentine Bonds and Railway Securities. It is true that Loans domiciled in London and payable in gold here ought not to be prejudiced at all by the fluctuations in the local currency, while it is equally true that Railway Companies, being entitled to increase their fares, are in a position to protect themselves against such variations. Upon this view we have always held the recent decline in Argentine Securities to be unwarranted. None the less, an influx of gold into the country is calculated to exercise a revivifying influence upon all interests there.—Money Market Review.

Railway Items.

The Inspector-General has reported favorably on the plans presented by the Central Argentine Railway Board for the construction of three bridges on the branch from San Fernando to Pergamino.

The Inspector-General has also reported favourably on the application filed recently by the Rosario Railway Board to be allowed to build a station between kils. 403 and 460 on the Sunchales Extension.

Mr. G. Mazzini has resigned his post on the Inspection-Staff of the Dean Funes and Chilecito line. Mr. F. Correa will be named in his room.

We received the following communication yesterday, and regret to say that we have not been able to give any details in regard to the trials of the electric light in Cordoba for the simple reason that the inspectors up there have taken no notice of the experiments. The trials, we grant, must have been very successful, but we should like to call our correspondent's attention to an extract from a New York paper, which we published a few days ago, and which shows that the electric light does not pay on the railways in North America, no matter how brilliant or successful the illuminant. The Southern Railway, we may add, has decided not to employ the electric light in its trains, and, no doubt, the manager must have his reasons for so doing:—

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 30th.

To the Editor of THE STANDARD:

Dear Sir:—

As a constant reader of your paper I was somewhat surprised to see such a meagre and misleading account of the electric light trials on trains.

In the first place, the light was tried on trains belonging to Central Northern Extensions constructed by the "empresa" Juan Jackson, engineer in charge and agent for said "empresa" in Cordoba, W. H. Cooper.

Secondly, the system is the system of Mr. J. Timmis, of London, whose representative is Mr. Smith, now here fitting up coaches, vans and stations.

As to the success of the light, it was perfect. After three trials, not a fault could be found. The conductor can control the whole train, or he can instantaneously detach any special coach without interference with the rest of the train.

Railway.

Our active contemporary, the R. P. Times of Montevideo, says:—

"On Monday there were great rejoicings in the town of Santa Rosa on account of the arrival of the locomotive from Toledo on the prolongation of the line to Nico Perez.

"Almost all the inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood turned out to make merry on account of the happy event, and the classic carne con cuero, sortija and other luxuries and popular amusements were freely indulged in. Colonel Meliton Muñoz and Comandante Cabrera were present on the occasion.

"The arrival of the locomotive was greeted with showers of rockets and hosts of crackers, while prolonged vivas and hurrahs arose from the assembled crowd, many of whom were taken up in the carriages, which the locomotive brought in tow, and were carried some 5 or 6 kilomts. along the line, and brought safely back again well pleased with their journey."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Nice weather and lots of news and rumours yesterday. (Rumours are for better than news, the latter is generally so commonplace.) The liquidation at Montevideo was reported to be improving most unespectedly way; and the "cotillon" in the Bristol Hotel at Mar del Plata to be the greates success of the day. Nothing very new about the gold premium, fresh loans and "all that rubbish", as our fair readers say when advised to read "On Change" carefully every morning.

Vice President Pellegrini opens officially the 2d section of the Port this morning in presence of several notables. The ceremony takes place at 9 o'clock. The Argentine and Brazilian war-ships Argentina and Trajano will lead the way into the Dock, and during the day several well-known merchant steamers will enter at intervals, to allow the public to enjoy the sight. Buenos Ayres has a Dock at last and will soon have more. The best way to reach the scene of action is down Calle Brazil or San Juan, those who try any other route might, could, would, or should get stuck in the mud.

Our Corrientes correspondent telegraphed to us last night a terrible steamer catastrophe. The boiler of the steamer Berta burst, killing three people and severely injuring three more, the vessel itself going to the bottom at once.

Hurrah! The Platense Company will run, from to-morrow, regular steamers from La Plata port to Montevideo three times a week (Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays) at 10 p.m. Train leaves Central Station at 8.35. $14½ first class. This will do away at last with the Ligurian boatman nuisance and the occasional chance of being drowned.

The Mondevideans have resolved to rigorously exclude from the Corso this Carnival furniture carts, bakers, ditto, and all vehicles except private carriages; not even the swellest job conveyance will be admitted. This is right. It may be democratic, but it is truly detestable to see, as is the custom in this city, all kinds of vehicles full of the "oi polloi" spoiling a show that would otherwise have consistency about it.

On Sunday next the Rev. Pelham Ogle will hold service at 8.15 a.m. and the Rev. L. McNeill at 5 p.m.

The latest fashionable news from Montevideo is the approaching marriage of Mr. Francisco Ros and Miss Aurora Jones. "Felicitaciones".

A London paper says: "If Stanley is to be made governor of British East Africa, he will have to become a British subject, and so we shall have all that curious controversy about his real nationality over again. There are people who affirm confidently that he is a Welshman, who know where he was born, and are ready with anecdotes of his childhood. They may be expected to rush into print as soon as he returns."

The Pall Mall Budget says:—"Truth, referring to reports in foreign newspapers that the Prince of Wales tried to hush up the West-end scandals, asserts that this is precisely the reverse of what took place. The Prince urged that there should be a full and public investigation, and that no effort should be spared to bring the guilty to account. His action throughout the affair (adds our contemporary) has been most laudable. As the head of society he is determined that, so far as he is concerned, the malpractices shall be stamped out and the guilty be punished."

Governor Paz is said to be very angry with the Deputies at La Plata, who are so done up with the heat and other things that only now and then do they brace their legislative nerves up to quorum point. We suppose there is no help for it.

The temperature, no doubt, in sympathy with Banco Constructor shares, took such a swoop down on Wednesday night that daily-bread men getting home by the last trams shivered like aspens in the open cars and caught cold in scores. Yesterday was almost a perfect day: nice breeze, no dust, and neither hot nor cold.

The New York World says:—"The London Court Journal, the organ of English royalty, so far recognizes a great American specialty as to advertise mince-pies at prices varying from three shillings to twenty-four shillings a dozen. This eminently aristocratic applause for a native product which, in spite of its dyspeptic influence, has become a National delicacy, is worthy of note on this side of the water. But we advise princes, princesses, dukes and duchesses not to eat mince-pies at three shillings a dozen."

Things political and pecuniary in grapy Mendoza appear to be in rather a queer condition, and Vice President Pellegrini has sent General Bosch up there post haste to prevent the threatened patriotic shindy. It appears that every man in the town is armed to the teeth. This state of affairs has naturally played old Harry with business of all kinds; and money, always scarce, or at least said to be so, in Mendoza, is now not to be had under one hundred per cent a month!! We wonder what the Iron Duke would say of the security that requires such a rate of interest. And Mr. Carr Glyn will have to find a stronger word than "inexplicable" when referring to this country at his next meeting of E.B. shareholders. In our telegrams further news from old Men will be found.

There is a very queer banking rumor from Cordoba to the effect that the Free Bank there is again putting in circulation its old issue, at its own free will and pleasure, as Congress has certainly given no sanction for this cool proceeding. In the Interior they are getting freer and freer every week in the banking line. How is it all to end?

Electric lighting, we suspect, will not die because overhead wires have failed in New York. The most influential papers there seem adverse to a general return to gas, and strongly urge that the subways for electric lighting be pushed ahead as vigorously as possible, as the the electric light "has come to stay," and there is no going back.

The Czar of Russia has become an expert performer on the violin. His troubles have evidently made him desperate.

It is announced that South Barracas intends to go in for a Corso this Carnival. It is the first time since its foundation that S. B. has gone in for such reckless extravagance, and we hope it will be the last.

Some wag in Rosario successfully hoaxed the Municipality there the other day by sending in the resignation of Alderman Larreches, which was at once gravely discussed and accepted with alacrity, as Mr. L. was Mayor last year and was the worst and most unpopular the town ever had. Of course the public roared with laughter when the joke transpired.

A number of prominent English writers are gathering literary materials in remote localities. Rider Haggard has gone to Asia Minor, Robert Louis Stevenson is in the South Seas, and Sir Edwin Arnold is between Europe and India. Certain American authors have done even worse. They have gone to the bad.

We regret to find the following paragraph in the Express of Montevideo:—Mr. James Trimble, the well-known gentleman who was wounded a few days ago by Mr. Crosa, last night was considered in a bad state, and the doctors who attend him despair of saving his life. Some declarations were taken by the Judge of Crime before Mr. Trimble about the affair. Mr. Crosa is still in the police Department.

The Bears and Bohemians question is not settled yet, although the two B's in question are, we are happy to say, on their way back to Europe. Mr. Christophersen, agent for the steamer Carlos R, which brought us the precious immigrants, has lodged a formal protest against the treatment they received from the Immigration Office. He maintains that the fact of a man travelling in company with a performing bear does not prove that he is a Bohemian and a beggar. It may not be absolute proof, but it is circumstantial evidence that would convince any jury in the world.

Our distinguished visitor, Mr. Bocayuva, starts for Cordoba, Tucuman and Mendoza this evening. There is a lot of embracing and oratory before him, as the Provinces are even more enthused about him than the capital.

An old maid said she wished she was an auctioneer, for then it would be perfectly proper to say, "Make me an offer."

Laidlaw's Tobacco Dips.

Are now generally admitted to be cheaper and more lasting in their effects than any of the arsenic or carbolic dips. They are perfectly safe and easy of application with cold or hot water, and never fail to cure the wor

The annual meeting of shareholders of the National Bank came off this afternoon. We do not remember a meeting of a more select and influential crowd. The cream of the "haute finance" was there. The proceedings were wonderfully smooth. Everything was approved, and all the candidates for directors appointed unanimously. Mr Sastre, the chairman, shewed how the bank after paying in 1889 a 20 o/o dividend, in quarterly instalments, had still a million dollars over, which was put to reserve. He dwelt at some length on the withdrawal of the bank's issue of paper, say 40 millions. This amount, he said, might be put to the reserve fund or be gradually distributed among the shareholders in dividends: the bank would then issue 40 millions of fresh paper circulation. Owing to the peculiar state of affairs in the market, the Board had not been able up to the present to carry into effect the withdrawal of the paper issue: the tightness of the money market and the state of crisis were insuperable obstacles to such a withdrawal. The shareholders left with the impression that the Board would endeavour to withdraw the old and replace it by the new issue in a gradual manner, in order not to disturb the market. They also bore with them the conviction that the old issue is tantamount to a 40-million dividend, and that their shares are cheap at 500.

Large amounts of money were offering on 'Change this afternoon and there was some expectation of high rates in view of the settlement. Money was offered at fourteen per cent. on National Bank shares at 150: no takers; on Credito Real at sixty per cent, same rate of interest; on Catalinas at forty and forty-one, very large amounts were refused and remained over. Money lenders were rather disappointed this afternoon.

It is rumored on 'Change that this market will soon bid good bye to forty-two thousand National Bank shares which will be shipped to London. This may be the forerunner of a Stock Exchange quotation in London and the payments of quarterly dividends in that market. This ought to be a good business; reduced to gold, the shares would be at present under par earning about ten per cent. interest. It remains to be seen if the news is confirmed.

The telegram from the Montevideo Bolsa this evening was a pleasant surprise, as, contrary to all surmises, Obras and National Uruguay Bank shares ruled firm at 32 and 102 respectively. It would appear that they have turned the corner in the Mount.

The National Government issued a decree to-day settling the difficulty raised by the Sanataria Company, which has in hand the connection of the private houses with the drains and sewers. The decree orders the City Improvement Works Company to grant permission for the construction of the external connections of the houses with the sewers whenever requested. It is also stipulated that these connections shall be made free of cost; no matter if the house owners owe the Improvement Works Company for arrears in the payment of the service. The decree also orders the City Improvements Company to eliminate from their prospectus the statement that their contract with the Government gives them advantages in the construction of the dormiciliary works, such not being the case, as the Government, in this regard, makes no distinction and grants no privileges.

A large amount of gold was sold at the second ring for to-morrow, nearly a million dollars; the premium opened at 122 30, fell gradually, and closed at 120½. The rate for February closed at 121.

There was a steadier feeling in National Bank shares this evening, no doubt owing to the prospects opened up at the meeting. Two thousand shares were sold for to-morrow at 204 to 206. Cedulas ruled very dull. Banco Constructor shares were out of the market. A few Bolsa Bank shares were sold at 65. Catalinas were a shade firmer; 2700 were sold for to-morrow at 48 to 49, closing at 48.50.

The following is a summary of operations effected this evening at the second ring:—

Advices from Entre Rios are very hopeful about the crops. The wheat crop in the Parana department is calculated at 250,000 fanegas, and in Dismante at 310,000 fanegas.

Mr. Martin de la Torre is the President and Mr. A. Lanusse Vice President.

At 8.30 in the morning there will be an official inauguration of the new Dock Nr. 1. The steamers were entering this dock all day and the place was crowded with visitors. The Dock is beyond question one of the noblest works in the Plate.

This is the most wonderful month's liquidation ever known on the Bolsa; nothing in fact to liquidate; no one looking for money. Formerly millions were taken up in the banks and market to close a month's liquidation and yet money was not to say tight. Now the liquidation calls for nothing and yet money is tighter than at any time last year in the outside market. Verily the Buenos Aires money market is inexplicable.

Circulars were given round on 'Change, signed by Don Enrique Coelho, explaining the liquidation accounts since last August, and showing the large sums he paid each month to close his liquidation.

The Parana Municipality have asked the Home-Minister to be allowed to levy a tax on the extraction of sand from the river-bed. It appears the Municipal cash-box there is something like that here, and the inventive powers of the Corporation are at work devising new taxes.

Engineer Castells has proposed to Government to make the surveys of the canal between the rivers Bermejo and Salado. The surveys, owing to the great distance and other difficulties, would cost $200,000 and would be made in sections of 50 kilometres.

Mr. Casey, who arrived up from Montevideo, was welcomed on 'Change; also Mr. F. Uriburu, who landed to-day from Europe, Mr. Tornquist from Mar del Plata, and Mr. Frangenheim ditto.

Mr. Geoffrey Guinness has applied to the Camara Sindical to be admitted broker at the ring.

The meeting of shareholders of the Banco de Italia was held to-day in the new saloons of the bank up-stairs. We give full particulars in another column.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's
CHLORODYNE.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never met any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. The Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

Caution.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

Notice.

We are always willing to take charge of ordinary letters (but not registered letters) addressed to our care, and these, as our readers well know, we advertise in our columns; this, however, we are unable to do with the enormous number of newspapers sent to THE STANDARD for new comers and others; we have now such an immense accumulation of these that the receptacles devoted to their reception in our office are over-crowded. We must, therefore, beg all persons expecting newspapers to call for them at their earliest convenience, in justice both to themselves and THE STANDARD.

Compania Muelles y Depositos del Puerto de La Plata.

Los Muelles de la Compañia estan habilitados para embarque y desembarque de mercaderias por decreto del Exmo. Gobierno Nacional, asi como los almacenes para deposito de carga.

El Ferro-carril de la Provincia recibe carga, directamente, á la Estacion Rio Santiago, sobre los mismos Muelles, á fin de facilitar la exportacion de cereales y frutos del pais.

No necesitamos recomendar al publico y al comercio las ventajas que alcanzará haciendo sus importaciones y exportaciones por los Muelles de la Compañia; basta imponerse de la tarifa para convencerse de las grandes economias que ofrece el Puerto de La Plata.
